

Ms. Henry visiting United Way of Thailand Office

On Thursday April 26, 2018, Prof. Rapepan Kumhom and NCSWT staff welcomed Ms. Karina Henry, Homeless Services Coordinator from United Way of the Midlands in South Carolina, U.S.A. She came to visit NCSWT and United Way of Thailand to discuss and exchange ideas of fundraising and participated in the Royal project, “Free meals for the needy”

In the afternoon, Ms. Karina was taken to visit the areas that received support funds from Praxair Company through United Way Worldwide, such as the Special Education Center of Nonthaburi province; Community Enterprise Group of Pimonraj in Bang Bua Thong District; and Farmer-Housewife Group of Klong Phra Udom in Pak Kret District, Nonthaburi province.
